

Prevent resources

If you have less than 5 mins

Read

Let's Talk About It. Spotting the signs poster.
There are many factors that could make someone vulnerable to radicalisation

LTAI_spot_the_signs.pdf

Let's Talk About It. The Iceberg poster.
When we think about terrorism we often think of the attacks. The attack is the tip of the iceberg.

LTAI_iceberg.pdf

Watch

Radicalisation is the process by which a person comes to support terrorism and extremist ideologies. If you are worried someone close to you is becoming radicalised act early and seek help

ACT Early | Visit www.actearly.uk for support and guidance on radicalisation - YouTube

An introduction to Prevent within a wider safeguarding context. (2 mins 48)

Understanding Prevent

A film about the Far-right extremism scale across Europe (2 mins 31)

Far-right extremism: why we should be concerned

Run, Hide, Tell: Firearms and Weapons Attack video.
Firearms and weapons attacks are thankfully extremely rare, but we must always know to do stay safe. (3 mins 52)

Run hide tell video

If you have 5-10 mins

Read
Involuntary celibate, known as incels are a growing subculture. This article documents one man's journey.	BBC article I used to be an Incel
Look through the Humberside Police Prevent webpage for local information and useful documents.	Humberside Police Prevent
Webpage from the Let's Talk About It website detailing what is Prevent.	What is Prevent
Webpage from the Let's Talk About It website detailing what is Channel.	What is Channel
Webpage from the Let's Talk About It website with a guide to spotting the signs.	Spotting the signs
Report from the Let's Talk About It website giving an overview of Prevent and Channel.	 LTAI_Prevent_Channel Overview.pdf
Watch
Hollyoaks enlisted the help of Prevent to tell a far right radicalisation storyline. This video tells the real life story behind it, and explains how to get help if you fear someone you know is at risk.(9 mins 42)	Counter terrorism policing teams up with Hollyoaks
My Story: How I was radicalised. In these series of short films, John (not his real name), tells how he was groomed. Many signs and opportunities were missed until his behaviour was reported and he went through the Prevent process.	How I was radicalised
ConnectFutures video Last week, we were pleased to see ConnectFutures resharing a video from a few years ago on their social media, where they speak with Yasmin, whose job was to recruit other women to join extremist organisations, and who now works to dissuade young people from following a similar path. (5 mins 30)	Yasmin "We wanted to create a revolution" Former recruiter. (3 of 4) - YouTube

ACT Early videos Counter-Terrorism Policing has recently launched two new 'letters to my younger self' films as part of its 'ACT Early' campaign, aiming to bring to life real stories of extremism and radicalisation. You can watch the new films here	Real stories – Counter Terrorism Policing (actearly.uk)
--	--

If you have 10 – 20 mins

Read
-------------	---

This article and guidance note looks at the role of social workers in tackling violent extremism.	The role of social workers in tackling violent extremism
--	---

This document from the Let's Talk About It website is a pocket guide to Prevent.	 LTAI_PreventPocketGuide.pdf
---	---

Watch
--------------	--

Humza Arshad has collaborated with counter-terrorism police to stop children being drawn into gang crime and extremism. Arshad, 34, worked with officers to produce the film 'Hate'. The message behind the film is one of tolerance, respect and communities working together to challenge hate in all its forms.(12 mins)	Film Hate
--	----------------------------------

Extremists. A back street brawl between two young men with extreme and opposing views - men who would never take the time to talk, to listen, to understand each other. And yet... a conversation begins. This provocative film reveals some challenging truths about prejudice, extremism and radicalisation, and shows that the best way to understand these problems is to talk. (9 mins 09)	Extremists film
--	--

If you have 20 - 30 mins

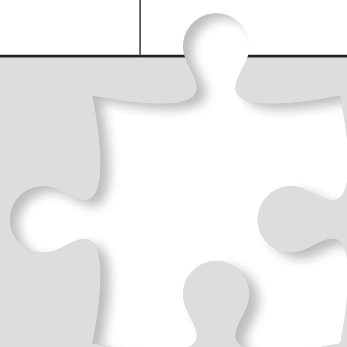

Read
Channel practitioners frequently asked questions, an older document but still useful.	 Channel FAQs for Practitioners.pdf
This BBC News article explores some of the current concerns, issues and dangers surrounding the threat of Far Right Terrorism online and in our communities.	Is there a growing far right threat online?
Listen
Code Severe is a podcast series hosted by Mark Strong, revealing previously untold stories of terrorist attacks from the files of UK Counter Terrorism Officers. Each story is told by detectives, counter terrorism officers, witnesses and the terrorists themselves.	Code Severe code: SEVERE Podcast on Spotify
Terrorism and the Mind: The Mental Health Frontline This podcast from BBC Sounds takes a look at the debate around mental health and extremism, including how people with mental health issues are managed through Prevent.	Terrorism and the Mind - The Mental Health Frontline - BBC Sounds

If you have 30 mins – 1 hour

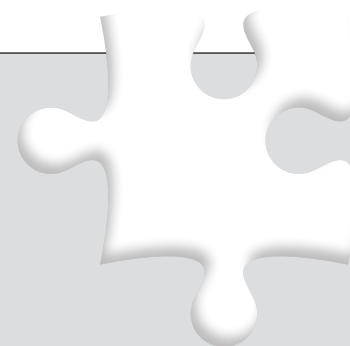

Read
Prevent for Further Education and Training This website is aimed at the education and training sectors. It offers guidance, sample risk assessments, policies and procedures along with resources, online training and links to videos.	Prevent for FE and training
Autism support and intervention This document provides guidance in order to be better able to understand what measures and services can be put in to support an autistic individual	Autism support and intervention

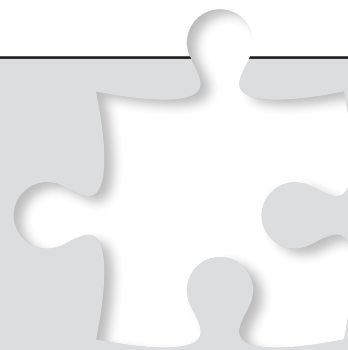

<h2 style="text-align: center;">Watch</h2>
Inside the secret world of incels. A BBC documentary into the incel subculture (50 mins) Available until July 2020	BBC programme Incels
<h2 style="text-align: center;">Listen</h2>
Tareena Shakhil on Woman's Hour An interesting discussion with Tareena Shakhil, the first British woman to be found guilty of joining ISIS, on Woman's Hour. (2 minutes 24 seconds in (total approx. 32 mins))	Woman's Hour - Tareena Shakil, Nabihah Iqbal & Libby Heaney, Death Doulas - BBC Sounds
<h2 style="text-align: center;">Learn</h2>
Prevent Awareness This course is for anyone new to Prevent. If you're unsure what Prevent is and what signs to look for when it comes to risks of radicalisation, awareness is the first course in our Prevent duty training	Prevent duty training: Learn how to support people vulnerable to radicalisation Prevent duty training (support-people-vulnerable-to-radicalisation.service.gov.uk)
Referrals This course is those who may be required to make Prevent referrals. If that responsibility is a part of your job role, regardless of your job title, then this course is for you	Prevent duty training: Learn how to support people vulnerable to radicalisation Prevent duty training (support-people-vulnerable-to-radicalisation.service.gov.uk)
Channel Complete this course before attending a Channel panel so you have a better understanding of how the Prevent programme helps those at risk of radicalisation	Prevent duty training: Learn how to support people vulnerable to radicalisation Prevent duty training (support-people-vulnerable-to-radicalisation.service.gov.uk)
ACT E learning This course looks to improve knowledge regarding security vulnerabilities, suspicious behaviour and what to do in the event of a bomb threat or weapons attack.	ACT E Learning
SCaN Training This SCaN For All Staff module is designed for all members of staff across an organisation venue or event, to increase their awareness of hostile reconnaissance and how they can help to help counter it	https://scan.highfieldlearning.com/

Learn / Read
Islamist extremism pack When it comes to holding discussions on challenging topics it can be hard to know where to look for support.	https://educateagainsthate.com/resources/lets-discuss-islamist-extremism/
Fundamental British values pack What does living in Britain mean to your students? Lead classroom discussions on shared British values	https://educateagainsthate.com/resources/lets-discuss-british-values/
Left-wing, anarchist, single-issue pack Looking to have conversations with your pupils about left-wing, anarchist and single-issue extremism in the classroom?	https://educateagainsthate.com/resources/lets-discuss-lasi-extremism/
Extreme right-wing terrorism pack Discussions about the extreme right-wing can often appear in the news, and your students may be asking questions about it.	https://educateagainsthate.com/resources/lets-discuss-extreme-right-wing/
<h2 style="color: red;">If you have more than 1 hour</h2>
Read
Prevent duty guidance. Guidance for specified authorities in England and Wales on the duty in the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act 2015 to have due regard to the need to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism.	Prevent Duty Guidance
Channel duty guidance. This document provides guidance for Channel panels, guidance for panel partners on Channel delivery, explains why people may be vulnerable to being drawn into terrorism and describes signs to look for and provides guidance on the support that can be provided to safeguard those at risk of being drawn into terrorism	Channel Duty Guidance
The Prevent strategy. The strategy contains three objectives: to respond to the ideological challenge of terrorism and the threat from those who promote it; to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism and ensure that they are given appropriate advice and support; and to work with sectors and institutions where there are risks of radicalisation that we need to address.	Prevent strategy

Extremism, radicalisation and mental health handbook This handbook is designed as a research- and theory-informed aid for clinical forensic practitioners working with individuals who present with extremism risk/vulnerability and mental illness	Extremism, radicalisation and mental health booklet
CT - Autism a parents guide. This booklet is intended to provide useful information, advice and guidance for parents and carers of autistic young people and adults who have been referred to Prevent. We hope it gives useful insight and provides helpful strategies that enable parents and carers to better support their loved ones.	Counter terrorism & Autism, a parents guide
Prevent elected members handbook Elected Members are crucial voices in our communities and engaging them on Prevent can help unblock potential obstacles to local delivery. To help with such engagement, last year we developed an Elected Members handbook, which provides information for this audience about what Prevent is, why it's important and how they can help in its delivery (as well as some FAQs).	 Prevent handbook for elected members.
The role of the internet in online radicalisation A joint research paper by Ministry of Justice colleagues and academia on the topic of the role of the internet in radicalisation processes. The paper presents interesting findings in the concept of 'online radicalisation'.	 Exploring the role of the Internet in radicali
Listen
Misinformation and conspiracy theories LISTEN Shout Out Media Minded Podcast explore the bizarre world of misinformation and conspiracies. Each episode platforms a different subject who has previously been a victim of, or a willing participant, a conspiracy theory. It's explored from all angles including those involved, academics and those experiencing the lies.	Media Minded by ShoutOut UK Podcast on Spotify

Communities defeat terrorism

Your information could be the missing puzzle piece

